PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

September is here, and the days are getting shorter. Kids are back in school, and normal daily routines are in full swing. It's hard to believe there are only 4 months left in 2024. Here at EWI we have been busy preparing for our September Meeting and Fall Fashion Show in October.

September 30th is National day for Truth and reconciliation. The day honours the children who never returned home and Survivors of residential schools, as well as their families and communities. To recognize this day EWI will be hosting a Kairos Blanket Exercise, led by Elder Maryann Napope at our September 18 meeting. Please wear an orange t-shirt if you have and invite your family or friends to participate and learn with us.

with gratitude,

Rhonda

SEPTEMBER DINNER EVENT 18

WHAT IS THE KAIROS BLANKET EXERCISE?

Developed in collaboration with Indigenous Elders, Knowledge Keepers and educators, the KAIROS Blanket Exercise (KBE) is an interactive and experiential teaching tool that explores the historic and contemporary relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in the land we now know as Canada.

During this 2 to 3-hour workshop, participants step on blankets representing the land and into the role of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples. They are guided by trained facilitators, including Indigenous Elders and Knowledge Keepers, who work from a script that covers pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization, resistance and much more. Participants read scrolls and respond to cues in the script. The KBE concludes with a debriefing, conducted as a talking circle, during which participants discuss the learning experience, process their feelings, ask questions, share insights, and deepen their understanding. Over the past two decades, thousands of KAIROS Blanket Exercises have been delivered in Canada and around the world, including in the United States, Central and South America, Europe, and Australia. By engaging participants on both emotional and intellectual levels, the KBE both educates and creates empathy and understanding.
